Home Aesthetic

The design direction of this pie bakery dine-in café follows the sense of a home-like aesthetic. It serves as a tribute to the co-founder's residence, which was the original space in which the pies were made.

Façade Design

The façade was completely remodeled, seamlessly incorporating the existing nooks and openings to create a cohesive and inviting exterior. A distinctive feature is the creation of an exterior “pocket” next to the entrance, which adds a unique architectural element and enhances the welcoming atmosphere. This thoughtful design invites guests to step inside and experience a sense of warmth and hospitality.
